

" MELODY THE MVP "
A COACH D STORY
EPISODE 14

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- What sports and/or activities did you first participate? What are some specific memories that stand out for you?
- As young as little league, Melody was focused on the final score. How does her experience make you feel? In what ways can you relate?
- What do you think about achievements and awards? In sports, society and in your own life, how much focus should we put on them?
- What do you think Melody will do next? Do you think she should be regretful or proud? If she were your friend, what advice would you give her?
- How would you encourage coaches and athletes today to find their identity outside of just what they accomplish on the field?
- Reflect and write your answer to the question, "Why do I play
